

Ministry and Care Report

November 2, 2025

Pat Sweet, Bill Wilkinson, Val Liveoak, Denise Wilkinson, and Julie Crum met on November 2 via Zoom.

Query for December:

How do we move beyond words and sentiment during this season of peace and goodwill in order to becoming living witnesses of truth, justice, and reconciliation in our nation and our daily lives?

We are grateful for the robust presence of friends at worship, with rich participation from people both new and long-time.

Bill Wilkinson is gathering information for an outline of a plan for how Meeting would deal with a dangerous person on the grounds. This plan will be developed through a meeting-wide activity in the early part of next year.

Stephen Shearer will lead a forum, "Speaking and Listening in the Light", on November 23.

At the monthly potluck on December 7, we'll celebrate Val Liveoak, who is moving to Austin. We'll take a group photo to commemorate the occasion. We hope everyone will be there.

We will offer "Ask a Quaker" at the rise of meeting on November 30, an informal session for friends who might have questions about Quaker practice.

We have a section on our website to help people who have gifts to offer connect with people who might need those gifts, "Friends Helping Friends". We intend to revive the site and make it easier for friends to find and use.

We discussed concerns for friends.

Our next meeting will be on Thursday, December 4 at 2:30 pm on Zoom.
